

THE NEW YORK HERALD.

WHOLE NO. 7020

DOUBLE SHEET.

THE BALL SEASON.

PRINTED BANQUET—CELEBRATION OF FRANCE'S BIRTHDAY—Dinner on Friday evening at the Hotel Nible's.—The Committee of Arrangements have the pleasure of announcing that there will be present at this occasion many distinguished and eminent persons from every part of our city, as well as from established representatives of the various professions most closely connected with the theatrical arts. The vocal and instrumental music of the Dredges' Band, the Alhambra, and the Hutchinson will be of the highest character—and, in connection with the responses from popular structures, must render a unique position in the history of the ball. Ladies, too, will participate in the celebration. Persons who are unable to purchase their tickets today, as no more will be issued, Gerardini's ticket, $1; Lady's, $1. Can be obtained at Mr. F. G. Barker's, 21 Park Row; W. H. Weston & Co., Baker, Govin & Co.'s, Tribune Building; or at the Fratres Library, No. 330 Broadway.

JAMES MARINE, Chairman.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

Boisterous Reception of Kossuth at Harrisburg.

The Legislative Hall Besieged and Taken, by the Ladies.

The Military Called Upon to Quell the Disturbance.

PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESS

AND THE

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE,

&c., &c., &c.

From Washington City.

THE FOREIGN DIPLOMATS AND KOSSUTH—TEXAS STOCK FAIR—THE FIRING INTO THE PROMISES, ETC.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE NEW YORK HERALD.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14—P. M.

The various statements with regard to Chevalier Hulsemann having protested to the President against Kossuth's speeches, are, of course, untrue. But both Hulsemann and Bodisco privately complain of the honor paid Kossuth. They say that they will find it difficult to explain to their governments the difference between Mr. Webster and the Secretary of State, Mr. Fillmore and the President. They will have to make the attempt however.

The five million Texas stock was paid at the Treasury Department, to-day, to the agent of the State of Texas.

I telegraphed to you, some time since, that Lord Palmerston had disavowed the outrage on the Promethus, and I now learn from official authority that there is every reason to believe, had not Lord Palmerston retired from the ministry, all the difficulty would have been amicably adjusted in a few days. His resignation, of course delayed the action of the government, but that is, as yet, no cause for doubt, but that the British government will adopt the views as promptly expressed by the late Foreign Secretary.

X. Y. Z.

KOSSUTH AT HARRISBURG.

GRAND SILENT PROCESSION—INTRODUCTION TO THE PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE—GREAT EXCITEMENT, CONFUSION, AND ROWDINESS—THE MILITARY CALLED OUT, ETC.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 14, 1852.

Kossuth and suite arrived by a special train about three o'clock this afternoon, having been detained on the route in consequence of the breaking of a car wheel. He was received by the Legislature and a large crowd of citizens, of course, with great enthusiasm. The session was adjourned at half past three o'clock.

Mr. George D. Thompson, of New York, a Radical, spoke for a long time, and then, in a雄赳赳的态度, called for a vote of confidence.

James W. Hall, Grand Jury, Lawyer and Engineer officer, James C. Jackson, of New York, and others.

James E. Smith, of Philadelphia.

John C. Frémont, of Sacramento.

CHAS. JAS. SPENCER, Chairman.

Members of the order are requested to appear in full regalia.

HENRY WELLS AND HIS SISTER MADAME H. Givellit's Academy for Boarding and general education, at 367 Madison Avenue, New York, January 1st.

Wells' Academy—Classes for Girls and Boys, three days, morning and evening classes for masters and misses, Wednesdays and Saturdays. At 3 P. M. hours, devoted to special classes and to private lessons.

CHARLES ROOM, 29 WHITE STREET—MESSRS.

CHARLES ROOM, 29 WHITE STREET—MESSRS.